

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Duccio Bartalucci
Born: 4 May 1952
Place: Modena, Italy
Resides: Via Braccianese, 199 – 00123 Rome, Italy
Profession: Equestrian Professional
Status: Married
Spouse: Emanuela Tornolia
Children: Jacopo, Olivia, Allegra, Violante and Guelfo. Allegra & Violante inherited the passion for horses and compete regularly.
Started Riding: 1958 at 6 years old at “Societa Ippica Romana” in Rome. He in turn inherited the passion from his parents. Between 6-12 he played other sports like football, skiing, tennis but starting at 12 years of age he focused only on riding.
Instructors: Maresciallo (lieutenant) Aurelio Landie, Colonel Chianti and then, Giancarlo Gutierrez, Hugo Miguel Arrambide (ARG), Raimondo D’Inzeo, Hank Nooren (NED)

SPORT CAREER

The Start

In National Shows: Started in 1965 at 13 years of age.
In International shows: In 1967 at 15 years of age.
In Nation's Cup: In 1972 in Copenhagen (DEN) riding Galapagos (2nd place).
In CSIOs in Rome: In 1971 on his 19th birthday.
Represented Italy and was part of the Italian team from 1971 to 1997.

Championship and Olympic Games

Olympics: -----
World Championship: 1982 Dublin (IRE) 7th with the team, 21st Individual riding Gran Duc.
European Championships: 1997 Manheim (GER), reserve with Too Hot Handle.
1983 Hickstead, 6th place team, 16th Individual riding Ideal del’ Haye.
Meditertanian Games: 1979 Spalato (YUG), 2nd team, 5th Individual riding Delilah.
Italian Championship: 1980 Salice Terme (Pavia) 1st riding Delilah
1982 Salice Terme (Pavia) 2nd riding Delilah
1972 Salice Terme (Pavia) 3rd riding Nubarron
He participated 26 times in the Italian Championship placed almost all the time among top ten.

In his career, he participated in about 50 National Cup (from 1972 to 1997) riding (Galapagos, Nubarron, Gama, Delillah, Gran Duc, Ideal de l' Haye, Argo de Villanova, Aristo, Zamira ZB, Too Hot to Handle, V Golda). Participated 9 times in CSIO Roma (Piazza di Siena) the most prestigious show in Italy. His most important victory was in the CSIO of Hickstead 1994 riding Golda V, where Italy did not win for 27 years.

CAREER AS TECHNICAL ADVISOR

From 1998 – 2004: Technical Committee Officer (Italian Equestrian Federation), responsible for the Italian teams

2005: Technical Committee Officer (Young Horses) (Italian Equestrian Federation)

2006: Director of Technical Committee (Italian Equestrian Federation)

2007: Left the Federation to ride with the team of Countess Da Zara

- Chief d' equipe of Italian team 2 Olympics, Sydney 2000 and Athens 2004.
- Chief d' equipe of 3 World Equestrian Games, 1998 in Rome, 2000 in Jerez and 2006 in Aachen.
- Chief d' equipe of 4 European Championship, 1999 in Hickstead (England), 2001 in Arnhem (Holland), 2003 in Donaueschingen (Germany) and 2005 in San Patrignano (Italy).
- Chief d' equipe of 7 Samsung Finals and in about 100 Nations Cups. Also he was responsible for the junior and young riders of the Italian team at the European Championship.
- Most important victory of Italian team in 2002 in Donaueschingen (GER), in the Samsung World Final.
- Teaching Career:
 - Privately he taught since 1977 in place of General Gerardo Conforti as Technical Director of the "Pony Club Roma".
- Gave many clinics and of his pupils that are competing at high level at the moment like Piergiorgio Bucci, Andrea Bracci, Piero Migliorini, Giuseppe Rolli and Antonio Alfonso.

MANAGEMENT CAREER

1979 to 1985 - President of "Associazione Sportiva Villa Glori"

1987 to 1990 - Member of "President Committee of Region of Lazio", the biggest sports committee in Europe with 25 different sports.

1980 to 1984 - The youngest president of Regional Committee of the Italian Equestrian Federation for the Region of "Lazio", "Umbria", "Abruzzo" and "Molise".

1998 – 2007 – Responsible of organizational aspect in the Federation and in the rules making of the Italian Show jumping rule book.